Fair Trading Commission to Host Third Annual Meeting with Key Regulators in Trinidad and Tobago

The Fair Trading Commission (“the Commission”) will be hosting its Third Annual Meeting with Key Regulators in Trinidad and Tobago which is carded for Thursday 26th January 2023.

The theme of this year’s Meeting of Key Regulators in Trinidad and Tobago is “Local Regulatory Co-operation in a world of VUCA (volatility, uncertainty, complexity, and ambiguity)”.

The purpose of this forum is to discuss how local regulatory bodies can better address international issues that impact Trinidad and Tobago with the main objective of bringing together representatives and officials of regulatory bodies to enhance their working relationship. The forum will also enable representatives and officials of regulatory bodies to share experiences and best practices with respect to competition and socio-economic development.

Presentations are expected to be delivered by various local regulatory bodies of the economy of Trinidad and Tobago which includes the Central Bank of Trinidad and Tobago (CBTT), the Office of Procurement Regulation (OPR), the Regulated Industries Commission (RIC) and the Telecommunications Authority of Trinidad and Tobago (TATT).
