FTC Promotes the Benefits of Competition at the Trade and Investment Convention 2022

August 30th 2022

The Fair Trading Commission (“the FTC”) as part of its ongoing advocacy efforts to increase awareness of the benefits of competition and ultimately to promote and maintain fair and effective competition throughout the local economy participated in the Trade and Investment Convention 2022. The convention was held between 25th -27th August 2022 at the Centre of Excellence, Macoya and was organized under the theme of “Business Resilience”.

The FTC’s Executive Director, Mr. Bevan Narinesingh and staff were present to advise on the role, powers and functions of the FTC with a focus on promoting and increasing awareness of the benefits of competition to various business entities, exhibitors and consumers. The FTC also communicated its role in ensuring that markets function effectively through lower prices, better quality goods and services, greater efficiency and increased productivity.

Any inquiries about this event should be directed to the FTC’s Executive Director, Mr. Bevan Narinesingh using the contact information below.
