Fair Trading Commission to Host Sixth Annual Meeting with Key Regulators in Trinidad and Tobago

The Fair Trading Commission (“the Commission”) will be hosting its Sixth Annual Meeting with Key Regulators in Trinidad and Tobago on Thursday 22nd January 2026.

The theme of this year’s Meeting of Key Regulators is “Institutional Resilience as a Catalyst for Economic Diversification”. The primary objective of this forum is to explore how regulatory institutions in Trinidad and Tobago are reaffirming their commitment to stable and predictable economic regulatory frameworks to facilitate efficient and long-term investment decisions and sustainable growth. The discussions are also expected to evaluate the effectiveness of existing regulatory frameworks in facilitating cross-sector collaboration and the delivery of broader policy objectives.

The meeting will provide an important platform for representatives of regulatory bodies to share experiences, challenges, and best practices, particularly in relation to competition, market efficiency, and socio-economic outcomes. Through open dialogue and knowledge exchange, the forum aims to promote a deeper understanding of how regulatory coherence and institutional capacity can enhance economic performance.

The discussions are expected to culminate in a share commitment to fostering a more collaborative regulatory environment with an emphasis on enhancing regulatory synergy, streamlining processes, harmonising decision-making, encouraging innovation, and further advancing sustainable economic development.

Presentations will be delivered by a range of local stakeholders from both the private and public sectors including the National Agricultural Marketing and Development Corporation (NAMDEVCO), National Entrepreneurship Development Company (NEDCO), Tourism Trinidad Limited (TTL), Trinidad and Tobago Coalition of Services Industries Limited (TTCSI), Private Sector Organization of Trinidad and Tobago (PSOTT) and the Trinidad and Tobago Manufacturers’ Association (TTMA).
